

Big Idea: Disciples of Christ make disciples of Christ.

1.) We have an awesome _____ (v. 20a).

- God has made us citizens of heaven, who are called to represent Christ as His ambassadors here on Earth (Philippians 3:20).
- To be an ambassador of Christ is a tremendous _____.
- To be an ambassador of Christ is a tremendous _____.
- No believer in Christ should suffer from a lack of purpose in this life, for we are Christ's ambassadors.

2.) We make an urgent _____ (v. 20b-c).

- Appeals are made when the stakes are high, the message is vital, and time is of the essence.
- Making an urgent appeal makes a big difference.
- Making our appeal means _____ the lost (v. 20c).
- Two ways to implore as ambassadors:
 - a.) Implore God in _____ to save (1 Timothy 2:1-4).
 - b.) Implore people to come, hear, repent, and believe.
 - We implore people because we understand what is at stake.
 - How much do we really think is at stake in the Gospel?

3.) We hold the only _____ (v. 20d-21).

- The urgent message that we are called to share is the message of _____ between ruined sinners and a holy God.
- Reconciliation with God is our urgent appeal, because it is the one thing that everyone everywhere needs most.
- Reconciliation is the message of how God's wrath against sinners is satisfied in the merciful sacrifice of His only Son.
- Because we have this mission, every day of our lives is filled with glorious _____.
